The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change of residence or employment.' The offender left his residence of 254 State Street, Apt. PH-A, Hackensack, New Jersey, on or around April 11, 2011, and did not notify his probation officer of his forwarding address. Therefore, his whereabouts were unknown.
2	The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.' The offender failed to report for a scheduled office visit on January 27, 2011.
3	The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.' On April 3, 2011, the offender was arrested by the East Hanover Police Department for Shoplifting and Simple Assault. The merchandise that the offender allegedly attempted to steal was valued at $4,717.50. According to the investigation report, upon police questioning, the offender provided them with false identifiers. The Shoplifting charge has been upgraded to Morris County Superior Court and the Simple Assault remains pending in East Hanover Municipal Court.

6	The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.' The offender has falsified his Monthly Supervision Report (March 2011) in that he reported that he had not had any contact with anyone having a criminal record.
